PRIVACY POLICY & COOKIES

Pikabooth (“we/us/our“) is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

This policy sets out the basis in which any personal data we collect from you, or that you provide to us, in relation our website at www.pikabooth.uk (“Site“) will be processed by us. Please read the following carefully to understand our views and best practice regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

We are the data controller for the purpose of the Data Protection Act 1998.

Information we may collect from you

We may collect and process the following personal information about you:

- Information that you provide through completion of our booking form. We may also ask you for more information when you report a problem with our Site.
- If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence.
- We may also ask you to complete surveys that we use for research purposes, although you do not have to respond to them.
- Details of your visits to our Site including, but not limited to, traffic data, location data, weblogs and other communication data, whether this is required for our own billing purposes or otherwise the resources that you access.
- We do not retain any personal information recorded from any social media app unless otherwise stated.

IP addresses

We may collect information about your computer, including your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration. This is statistical data about our users’ browsing actions and patterns, and does not identify any individual.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or mobile phone when you browse websites. We use cookies on our Site to remember your settings during and between visits, improve our Site and allow you to share pages with social networks like Twitter and Facebook.

We do not use cookies to collect any personally identifiable information. Our use of cookies is explained in more detail below.

Our cookies

Our cookies are used to remember your search settings and to allow you to add comments to this Site. The only way to stop these cookies being set is to change them on your internet settings.

Cookies for Social Websites

So you can refer or share our content on social media platforms such as Facebook and Twitter, this Site has included sharing buttons. The cookies themselves are set by the separate social network websites.

Visitor Statistics

We use Google Analytics cookies to compile website statistics on visitors to our Site. Such analysis includes information on how visitors access the Site, the amount of time spent on the Site, and what pages are visited.

Your cookie settings can be adjusted in your browser settings and will prevent your browser from accepting cookies. This may decrease the efficiency and functionality of this Site and others as cookies are a typical part of the majority of modern websites. For more information on enabling and disabling cookies and on the use of cookies generally please see

Where we store your personal data

All information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers. You are responsible for keeping your password confidential. We ask you not to share a password with anyone.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our Site and any transmission is therefore at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

Uses made of the information

We use personal information held about you in the following ways:

- To ensure that content from our Site is presented in the most effective manner for you.
- To provide you with information that you request from us or which we feel may interest you, where you have consented to be contacted for such purposes.
- To carry out our obligations arising from any contracts entered into between you and us.

Disclosure of your information

We may disclose your personal information to third parties:

- In the event that we sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets.
- If Pikabooth or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by it about its customers and/or held on behalf of its customers may be one of the transferred assets.
- If we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms and conditions available at www.pikabooth.uk or other agreements; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of Pikabooth, our customers, or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

Your rights

You have the right to ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes. We will usually inform you (before collecting your data) if we intend to use your personal data for such purposes or if we intend to disclose your information to any third party for such purposes. You can exercise your right to prevent such processing by checking certain boxes on the forms we use to collect your data. You can also exercise the right at any time by contacting us at contact@pikabooth.uk.

Our Site may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of our partner networks and affiliates. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own privacy policies and that we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data to these websites.
